The day I enjoyed the most

The day I enjoyed the most was in Goa. During my last summer vacation I had gone to Goa. There I met my grandparents, my aunt, uncle and my cousin. One day we all went together to visit the churches and spend sometime on the beach. We had lot of fun. We shared stories, jokes and played on the beach. I will never forget that day in my life.

The story book I read

I read a story book titled 'Tenali Raman' and liked the character Tenali Raman very much. Tenali Raman was a jester in the king, Krishnadeva Raya's court. Krishnadeva Raya was a powerful king of the Vijayanagar Empire. The book has many stories of Tenali Raman. Each story is a comedy and written in easy language. The illustrations are colourful. I enjoyed reading it.

My Playtime

My playtime is a very special time for me. When I go to play I forget everything else. I feel very happy. There is a park near my house. In the park there are many swings. In the evening I go to this park to play with my friends. We play on the swings and slides. We play hide and seek, hop scotch and many other games. When it is rainy, we do drawing and painting. When it is very cold, we play with our dolls. Sometimes we just run in the park. I never want to miss my playtime. We go back home when it becomes dark.

NEVER AGAIN

A story by Shashank Thakur
Class -III D

Once there was a man. He was sleeping on his sofa. Beside his sofa, he had a fish bowl. There was a golden fish in it. The man also had a pet cat who wanted to eat the fish from that bowl.

Seeing the man sleeping, the fish jumped into the bowl but got stuck inside. A large amount of water splashed out. Some fell into the glass of juice kept near the man and some drops fell on his face. He woke up startled. As he picked up the glass to drink the juice, he noticed his little fish inside the juice. He was surprised. Soon, he turned to the bowl and saw his cat inside it. He pulled out his cat and filled fresh water in the bowl again. Then he put the fish back in the bowl. The cat jumped and ran away. After that the cat never troubled the little fish again.

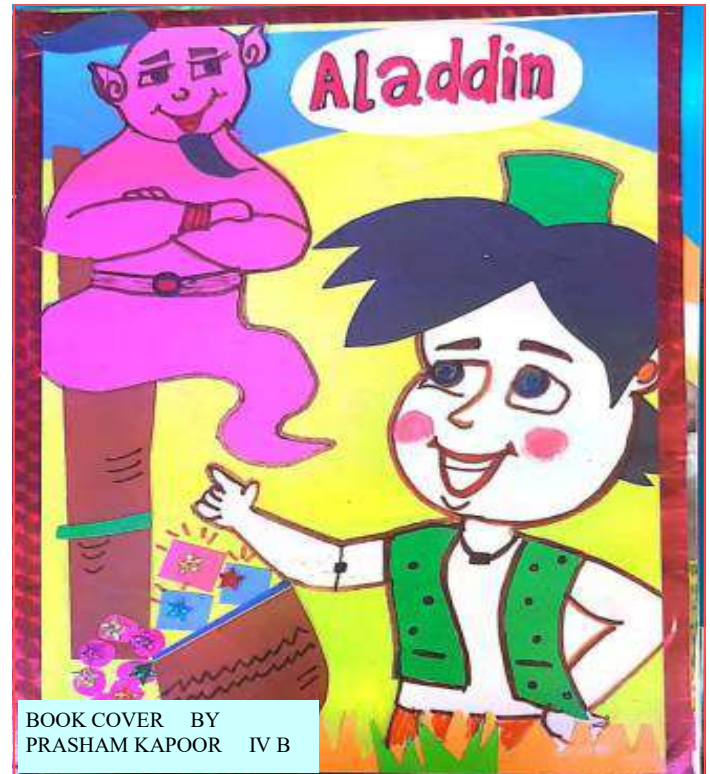

My grandfather's name is Mr Anil Kumar Aggarwal. He is 60 years old. He is a very religious person. He wakes up early in the morning. He takes bath and prays to God everyday. At night, he tells me interesting stories. I greet him everyday and he gives me his blessings. He always helps the needy and poor people. I love my grandfather very much.

My grandparents are the oldest members in my family. They are the most important members in my life. They are very loving and caring. They have always taught me to respect my elders. My grandmother is 57 years old. My grandfather is 73 years old. They do not look as old as people of their age look. They do yoga and meditation regularly. I admire both of them because they are very active and healthy. They are my role model. Nobody can ever replace them in my life.

THE DAY I ENJOYED THE MOST

My last Birthday was the day on which I enjoyed the most. I distributed sweets to my classmates and teachers in the school. Nobody scolded me on that day. In the afternoon I went with my parents to give clothes and sweets to the poor children. On seeing the smile and satisfaction on their faces I felt very happy. In the evening my parents had thrown a party. I got many gifts. I played many games with my friends and cousins. I had lot of fun in the party.

Ways a Parent Can Help with READING

- 1 Let your child see you reading!
Have magazines and books in your home.
- 2 Help your child find appropriate word & reading games on the computer.
Keep a dictionary on hand. Help your child look up new words they read or hear.
- 3 Read mysteries with your child and try to figure out the clues together.
- 4 Movie version coming out?
Read the book together first, then talk about which you each liked better.
- 5 Set aside a time and place for your child to read - like a comfy chair and a reading light in a quiet place
- 6 Visit your public library regularly.
Look for and read together the books that were your favorites when you were a kid.
- 7 Encourage your child to write - letters, thank you notes, emails, journals, lists, stories about their own trips, events, and daily life
- 8 Ask your child questions about what he or she is reading, such as:
- What is the story about?
- Who are the important characters in the story?
- Where does the story take place?
- Why do you think the character made that choice?
- Why did that happen?
- How did you know about...?
- Would you recommend this book to your friends?
- 9 Ask your child to draw a comic strip about what happens in the story.
Provide word searches, crossword and other word games and puzzles, or help your child make his/her own

Share with your child about what you're reading... and encourage your child to do the same
